

THE HUSKIE LEADER

Dec./Jan. 2021-22
Heartland Community School News

The Heartland 2021 One-Act Team is made up of 24 talented cast and crew members. This year they are performing "13 Ways to Screw Up Your College Interview" by Ian McWethy. This is a hilarious, fast-paced play about two college recruiters who have just found out from the Dean that they need to fill one more spot or they are fired. Finding the perfect recruit from the wait list files turns into an impossible task as each applicant manages to screw up their interview in their own unique way. The One-Act Team started out their season by placing 5th at the York K-DUB Play Production Competition on November 13. They placed 4th at the Conference One-Act Competition at Centennial on November 16. The One-Act Team will finish out their season with a community performance on November 30 at 7:30 and then travel to Loup City for the District One-Act Competition on December 4. The One-Act directors are Barbara Casper, Kelsey Gooder, and student director Cynthia Cerveny.

Why are we pursuing recommendations for updates and expansion of our building from the facility study?

The following are just some of the reasons for consideration:

Front Entrance

- Building security is centrally located and visibility of front doors is restricted
- Visitors gain direct access to the building unless met at the door
- Exterior needs structural upgrades due to age
- First impressions to visitors and community

Classrooms

- Educational strategies have changed to focus on targeted instruction in small groups
- Pre-school age students are turned away due to the lack of space and staffing
- Henderson and Bradshaw are discussing expanded housing opportunities
- Positive trend of alumni and other young families moving to our district

Locker Rooms & Weight Room

- No major updates for nearly 40 years, resulting in safety and ADA access concerns
- Need more room to enhance training facilities for student athletes
- Utilize old locker rooms for visiting teams to eliminate athletes passing through cafeteria
- Serves as a sense of pride, morale, and visitor impression to have quality training and locker room facilities

Activity Entrance & Connecting Corridor

- Security and weather concerns with students passing outdoors between shop and main building
- Dedicated entry and concessions area for indoor activities
- Room to display the history of Heartland and the communities of Henderson and Bradshaw

Costs

For all of the above projects, the cost would be about $5.17 million. Interest rates are low and will likely rise in the near future

- For a 20-year bond at current interest rates, this would add 5.25 cents on the levy or $2.75 per month per $100,000 of residential property @ 75% valuation
- Agricultural land, at 50% valuation, would translate to about $26 per year or $2.17 per month per $100,000 valuation

Heartland students, staff, and community members honored Veterans with a Veterans Day program on November 11. The program was full of pride and honor as we spent time thanking those who have served and continue to serve today. Students in grades fourth to twelfth had the opportunity to write essays. The essay topic was "How Can I be a Good American?" Elementary essay contest winners were Micah Haidle (1st place), Tori Thieszen (2nd place), and Keely Burgess (3rd place). High school winners were Eloise Casper (1st place), Camden Riggs (2nd place), and Zach Quiring (3rd place). Thank you to Henderson State Bank for providing monetary prizes to these students and to Virginia Fay, Elaine and Tom Vaught, and Evelyn Batson for judging the essays. During the program, Boyd Stuhr Sr. was honored with a Quilt of Valor. A Quilt of Valor is a handmade quilt that is awarded to a Service Member or Veteran who has served and a way of saying, "Thank you for your service and sacrifice in serving our nation." A special thank you to Ms. Widick and the National Honor Society students for hosting the program, Mr. Hall and the high school choir members for singing, and Mr. Wagner and the Striv team for broadcasting the program.

We also use an automated phone message service through School Messenger to notify parents about school closings as well. With this service it is very important that we have current numbers on file. Please call the school office if anything changes.

You may also call our school closing phone line at 402-723-4421. If a decision has been made the night before, the closing will be announced around 10:00pm. In the mornings it will be announced on the half hour from 6:30am to 8:00am.

DISTRICT LIVESTOCK JUDGING

On November 3rd, 37 of the Heartland FFA chapter members got to experience what it's like to judge livestock at the Merrick County Fairgrounds in Central City for District Livestock Judging. They judged breeding ewes, market lambs, breeding does, market goats, breeding gilts, breeding bulls, market steers, and keep or cull heifers. They also answered questions regarding the animals and gave reasons on why they placed the animals the way they did. The animals that junior judges gave reasons on the market steer class. The senior judges gave reasons on was the market steer class and the market goat class. The four highest scores created a team. The Heartland FFA Junior district livestock team score was Zach Miller (placed 19), Cheyenne Danielson (placed 40), Madison Mason (placed 69), and Carter Siebert (placed 93). The team placed 12th. The Heartland Senior livestock team scores were David Onnen (placed 64), Emilie Albrechtsen (placed 68), Wyatt Panko (placed 73), and Kambel Newman (placed 76). The team placed 10th.

NATIONAL FFA CONVENTION

Ben Janzen, Mason Hiebner, Alex Goertzen, Aaron Goertzen, Tyler Lewis, Kambel Newman, Celesta Teijema, and Emilie Albrechtsen all had the opportunity to experience the 94th National FFA Convention, in Indianapolis, Indiana. Heartland FFA members spent 5 days, from October 26th - October 30th, traveling. They not only got to experience general sessions, the FFA shopping mall, FFA expo, and workshops, but they also got to visit amazing agricultural places.

Some of the places they visited were the Field of Dreams, the National Toy Tractor Museum, and the Indianapolis Zoo. They also got to tour Keeneland RaceTrack and Old Friends Farm for retired Thoroughbred race horses. Members got to feed the retired horses carrots, take their picture with a horse who smiled on command, and see the horse actor for Seabiscuit. After the tours were done, they were able to catch a few horse races at Keeneland before the track was shut down for the season.
